Making the customer’s life easier

Würth is wherever materials need to be drilled, glued, plugged, anchored and screwed together. The aim is very simple: to make the customer’s work easier by providing individual services, practical system solutions and an extensive range of products. Würth remains close to the action, close to the trades and close to the customer by providing personal contact with the help of its 33,500 salaried sales representatives and its additional availability per Internet, app and phone. Customers can cover their immediate needs in more than 2,000 branch offices all over the world.

With more than 500 branch offices, Adolf Würth GmbH & Co. KG in Germany is closer to its customers than any of its competitors. Würth inspires its 3.7 million customers from the trades, construction and industry with numerous options for ordering products and pioneering sales and logistics solutions. We take your ideas and requirements into account and put them into practice:

This is how the new cordless drill driver ABS 18 COMPACT came into being, whose many different features reflect the wishes expressed by our customers.

Art and Culture

Kunsthalle Würth shows modern art from Paris

The Paris-based modern art museum Musée d’Art moderne de la Ville de Paris is currently exhibiting some 200 of its masterpieces in Schwäbisch Hall. The exhibition “From Henri Matisse to Louise Bourgeois” is home to many outstanding pieces of art. Be it works by André Derain, Pablo Picasso or Yves Klein, be it Fauvism, Cubism or New Realism: The exhibition features a wide range of exceptional works and an insightful walk through Paris’ art history from the 1900s. The presentation is rounded off by works from the Würth Collection.

New innovation center
Würth is building a new innovation center at the Künzelsau-Gaisbach site, investing thus into the further growth of the company. The groundbreaking ceremony for the project to the tune of EUR 70 million was in March 2019, completion is scheduled for the end of 2021. State-of-the-art laboratories and workshops will be built on some 15,000 square meters and approximately 250 people will work there: employees of the research and development department of Adolf Würth GmbH & Co. KG and from Group companies that operate in the manufacturing sector, as well as external researchers. Moreover, thanks to a cooperation with three universities, in-house expertise and innovative strength will be enhanced by external know-how and ideas. One main objective of this large-scale project will be to reduce product innovation cycles – one of the backbones for sales and growth.

The figures of the Würth Group are prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS).
